|---|---|
| TITLE (Name of the activity) | workshop titled "The Status of Working Women in the Palestinian Labor Law". |
| BACKGROUND/CONTEXT (What is the situation? What are the needs of the place where you want to implement the activity?) | We implemented this workshop in Nablus at An-Najah National University. It was vital to make such workshop touching the subject of the status of working women in the Palestinian labor law since no one talks about such an important topic. So we wanted to raise awareness and inform graduates, especially women, about labor laws. |
| PURPOSE/OBJECTIVES (What is the goal? How it is related with the context of the project?) | The project is all about women empowerment and fighting for their rights and working on their independence, therefore this activity's main objective is to inform these young women of their rights, duties and how to face those who try to break the labor laws and try to take advantage of them in the working environment. |
| TARGET/PEOPLE (The activity is directed to whom?) | Youth, but mainly fresh graduates. |
| PLACE/WHERE (Where do you will implement the activity?) | At An-Najah National University |
| STAKEHOLDERS INVOLVED/TO INVOLVE (Do you plan/want to involve others? Who?) | the Deanship of Student Affairs at An-Najah National University and the Rural Women's Association. |
| ACTIVITY/IES (What kind of activity you want to realize? How it will work?) | It's a workshop about several provisions of the Palestinian Labor Law were reviewed and illustrated using examples to aid in the delivery of information, as well as how an employee can be exposed to violations of those laws in the workplace. |
| ROLES (Who will implement the activity and what will be responsible for?) | The workshop was led by the Palestinian activist and Lawyer Ms. Manar Al-Masri. |
| EXPECTED OUTCOMES (Why you are doing this activity? What change/results you want to obtain?) | Raise awareness and help make a change in following the labor laws in Palestine, and empower women to lead their financial independence and assist them on their career building. |
| COMMUNICATION STRATEGY (How do you plan to promote, share and communicate the activity?) | There was a full media coverage from witness organization, the Deanship of Student Affairs at An-Najah National University and the Rural Women's Association. We came up with different media materials including pictures, videos, interviews and written articles of the workshop. |
